

WHOLE FOODS MARKET - MONTROSE

Houston, Texas

Industry: Retail

Project Description:

Cleveland Construction is currently the general contractor for the ground-up construction of a 40,450 square-foot Whole Foods Market store located in Houston, Texas.

Cleveland Construction's scope of work includes core and shell construction of the building, as well as all necessary development work on a 4.5 acres site. Project includes installation of masonry, structural steel columns, roof framing and steel decking, wood decking, recycled composite lumber and reclaimed lumber, aluminum and glass window systems, hollow metal doors, frames and hardware, finishes - stucco and painting, signage, site furnishings, elevator, fire protection system, plumbing, and electrical. Exterior improvements include concrete paving, fencing, landscaping, irrigation, earthwork, and all utilities.

Owner: Whole Foods Market

Architect: Stone Soup 6 Architecture, LLC

Project Duration: 9 Months

Completion Date: November 2010

Scope of Work: General Contractor